ALEXANDER Jim, The Rain Bird, 1999

$27.50 ($25.00 + $2.50 GST) Postage $4.00

Rainbird is about the author's 12 years as a police officer in the Territory from 1952 to 1964. Jim served at Katherine, Tennant Creek, Wave Hill, Lake Nash, Rankine River, Anthony's Lagoon, and Alice Springs.

BARTER Leith, From Wartime Camp to Garden Suburb: a Short History of Nightcliff and Rapid Creek. 1994. Reprinted 2002.

$21.00 ($19.10 + $1.90 GST) Postage $4.00

The history and development of Nightcliff (a Darwin suburb) is discussed. Nightcliff is situated on the coast, and was well utilised by Australian, British and American defence forces during WW2. After Cyclone Tracy, Nightcliff slowly developed into a garden suburb. The book contains many early photographs including the destruction caused by Cyclone Tracy.

CAMERON JMR, Letters from Port Essington: 1838-1845. 1999.

Reprinted 2002. $36.00 ($32.70 + $3.30 GST) Postage $7.50

The book is a history on Port Essington (the last British settlement on the Northern Territory coast - Cobourg Peninsula). Jim has compiled within the book, original unedited colonial correspondence. Port Essington was Britain's third attempt at colonising the Territory but this also failed.

For anyone who wants to read about everyday life in an NT penal settlement, this book is highly recommended.
