BARTER Leith, From Wartime Camp to Garden Suburb: a Short History of Nightcliff and Rapid Creek. 1994. $21.00 ($19.10 + $1.90 GST) Postage $2.00

The history and development of Nightcliff (a Darwin suburb) is discussed. Nightcliff is situated on the coast, and was well utilised by Australian, British and American defence forces during WW2. After Cyclone Tracy, Nightcliff slowly developed into a garden suburb. The book contains many early photographs including the destruction caused by Cyclone Tracy.

CAMERON JMR, Letters from Port Essington: 1838-1845. 1999.

$36.00 ($32.70 + $3.30 GST) Postage $7.50

The book is a history on Port Essington (the last British settlement on the Northern Territory coast - Cobourg Peninsula). Jim has compiled within the book, original unedited colonial correspondence. Port Essington was Britain's third attempt at colonising the Territory but this also failed. For anyone who wants to read about everyday life in an NT penal settlement, this book is highly recommended.

CARMENT David, Australia's Northern Capital: A Short History of Darwin

2005. $15.00 ($13.64 & $1.36 GST) Postage $2.00

The book covers the history of Darwin when it was administered by South Australia, the Commonwealth Government, until self government in 1978 until the present. Two chapters are devoted to WW2 which had a huge impact on Darwin. The book contains many photographs and is designed for the tourist industry.

DUMINSKI, Marge, Southport Northern Territory: 1869-2002

2005. $29.00 ($26.37 & $2.63 GST) Postage $2.00

The book discusses Southport's beginning as a gold mining town to the present day. As well as including many early photographs of buildings, Marge has also documented and photographed artefacts collected from Southport. The book also includes the history and ownership of every title of land.

FARRAM Steven, Mud-punchers, Racehorses and a Roadhouse:

Bob and Mavis Lindon in North Australia, 1950s-1980s 2009

$20.00 ($18.20 & $1.80 GST) Postage $2.00

Bob Lindon arrived in the Territory to drill water for cattle stations and Sydney city girl, Mavis joined him later. Mavis quickly learnt to live in a tent and the skills needed as a driller's offsider. The Lindon's later managed the Renner Springs Roadhouse and founded the local racing club. Their own racehorse Wood won the Darwin Cup in four consecutive years 1959-1962 – a record never beaten. Bob returned to water drilling until his death in 1985

FORSTER Pat, The Navy in Darwin 1941-1943, 2003.

$15.00 ($13.64 & $1.36 GST) Postage $2.00

Pat talks about his life in the Navy in Darwin between 1941-1943. The book contains 35 sketches from the NT Museum & Art Gallery collection and are an invaluable record of life in the Navy, and the events leading up to the air raids and the first bombing of Darwin on 19 February 1942.

JAMES Barbara

Occupation: Citizen: The Story of NT Women and the Vote (1894-1896) 1995

The book has recently been acquired by the Society. It covers the introduction of the Bill, the first Territory elections and enrolled women on the goldfields and other remote regions. Barbara includes all women's names on the 1895 Palmerston Electoral Roll and snippets of information on these women. Many of these women are from well known pioneering families. Barbara has enhanced the book with fabulous photographs and memorabilia of the day. It is an excellent book for anyone researching their family history from that time.
$20.00 (18.19 & $1.81 GST) Postage $4.00
